BONAJ EKZEMPOJ.

Dum la Brita Kongreso en Chester mi havis la plezuron renkonti S-inon Scammell el Sydney, N.S.W., Aŭstralio, kiu sciigis al mi, ke dum la vojaĝo al Anglujo ŝi faris du sukcesplenajn paroladojn surſipe pri Esperanto, kaj ke pli ol 30 personoj poste aliĝis al klaso sub ŝia gvido por lerni la lingvon. Mi gratulas ŝin tutkore pri ŝia klopo, kaj citas la aferon ĉi tie kiel imitindan exemplon por ni ĉiuj.

Antaŭ kelkaj tagoj mi ĉeestis bonege aranĝitan Gardenan Feston en Farnley Tyas sub la aŭspicioj de la Yorkshire Esperanto Federation. Pastro Ashley organizis la aferon, kaj montris al la vizitantoj kiamaniere havigi monon el la poſoj. Lia ĝardeno estis sufice alloga per si mem, sed tio ne kontentigis lin. Li aranĝis tenisan, gaufan, pilkan kaj aliajn konkursojn en ĉiuj partoj, kaj por partopreni en ili oni devis pagi po unu penco. Mi ne scias kiom da mono mi pagis, sed kiam mi lasis la ĝardenon miaj poſoj estis preskaŭ malplenaj; kaj verſajne aliaj samideanoj estis en la sama senmonera stato. "Ofte kaj multfoje," kiel diris Shylock, mi vizitis Festojn de Esperantistoj, sed neniam antaŭe unu tiel bone organizita kiel tiu en Farnley. Mi konsilas al aliaj organizontoj, ke ili petu al Pastro Ashley kopion de la programo, por ke ili povu sekvi lian bonan ekzemplon.

Dum la posttagmezo ni havis interesan kunvenon, sed post kelkaj eroj de la belegaj kaj lertaj lernantinoj de F-ino Briggs la pluvo decidis partopreni en la Festo, kaj igis nin surmeti makintoſojn, malfermi ombrelojn, kaj iri hejmen aŭtomobile aŭ piede sen pli da vortoj ol "Gis la sunbrilo!"

Kaj nun mi preparas mian valizon denove por vojaĝi eksterlanden por partopreni en la granda Festo de Esperantistoj en Vieno. Mi bedaŭras, ke ne estas eble, ke ĉiu Brita samideano iru kun mi, ĉar mi estas certa, ke multe da plezuro kaj ĝojo atendas la kongresanojn. Sed . . . kvan-kam multaj el miaj legantoj devas resti hejme, mi povas certigi al ili, ke ni pensos pri ili ofte. Korpe, nipovos esti kune, sed spirite ni estas ĉiam unu, ĉu hejme aŭ trans la maro. Ĉe niaj kongresoj en Britujo mi devas labori de la unua horo ĝis la lasta, sed en la Mondkongresoj mi estas nur humila delegito, kaj tial povas ĝui la aferon same kiel la aliaj. Tamen mi faros mian devon kiam ajn la temo diskutota ŝajnas al mi grava.

Mi iros al Vieno kun granda entuziasmo, ĉar mi kredas, ke pluaj sukcesoj atendas nian movadon. Mi iros kun la espero, ke harmonio regos inter ĉiuj samideanoj, kaj ke ĉiuj agos kun la sola deziro helpi al la fina triumfo de Esperanto. Gis la revido!

JOHN MERCHANT.

KRONIKO FAKA.

Fairs. The 5th International Fair of Reichenberg, 9-15 Aug., issues an interesting prospectus and posters in Esperanto. The Leipzig Fair, 31 Aug.-6 Sept., issues a very handsome prospectus in Esperanto, profusely illustrated. Almost every trade fair in the world of international importance uses Esperanto, with the exception of the British. When shall we wake up?

Friends' Esperanto Society had an excellent letter in The Friend, 20 June, pointing out the importance of the I.L. problem from the Quaker point of view.

Junularo. La Universala Esperanto-Asocio Junulara eldonas gazeton, Esperantista Junularo, 8 fojojn dum la jaro. Sciigojn de A. Neuport, Wedellstr. 17 Leipzig-Möckern, Germanujo.

Kontraŭtabakuloj estas petataj komunikigi kun la Kontraŭtabakista Ligo, Kleeblattg. 7/11, Wien I, kiu aranĝas kunvenon kaj eldonos Esperantan literaturon ĉe la Viena Esperantista Kongreso.

Labour. At the Educational Conference of the International Federation of Trade Unions, Oxford, 15-27 Aug., the National Council of Labour Colleges will propose a Resolution recommending constituent bodies to set up Esperanto classes, especially for youth sections, and asking the Education Department to appoint a Committee to enquire into the advisability of using Esperanto for its correspondence and international literature.

Commenting upon this Mr. Robert Williams, Secretary of the Transport Workers' Federation, writes:

"I am heartily in favour of the principle of adopting some universal language for conferences . . . National Conferences in which only one language is spoken are very tedious things, especially if they are lengthy ones like the Trades Union Congress; but international conferences where there are three official languages, and several supplementary ones, bore one absolutely stiff."

A resolution favouring Esperanto appears upon the Agenda of the forthcoming Labour Party Conference. The Labour Party of New Zealand advocate the introduction of Esperanto into the schools.

League of Nations' Union. At a recent Conference of the Union the Huddersfield branch moved a resolution advocating the use of Esperanto as an aid to the attainment of the objects of the League. "The Chairman, Major Hills," reports the Huddersfield Examiner of 19 June, "in a burst of patriotism, said that English was good enough for him. The applause with which this was greeted in some quarters subsided when it was pointed out that this was the strongest argument for a neutral language, as every patriotic citizen of every country was of the same opinion about his own tongue."

Police. In Police Review, 20 June, we read: "In Roumania the Secretary of State for Home affairs has authorised the introduction of Esperanto as a compulsory subject in the Police School Curriculum, and has appointed M. T. Morariu Professor of Esperanto at a salary of 1,500 lei monthly. In Estonia Esperanto has been adopted by the Police Force as their official language for communication with members of the International Police Union."

Pošto. La Internacia Ligo de Esperantistaj Pošt-kaj Telegraf-Oficistoj (ILEPTO), (Adr., D-ro E. Spielmann, P.K. 174, Transit, Bern), sendis al la Pošta Kongreso en Stockholm, en Julio, paresperantan peticion kun preskaŭ 14,000 subskriboj el 35 landoj.

Radio. The Hungaria Radio-Revuo publishes an Esperanto column in each number, with a summary of the Hungarian contents. We hope that readers will write to the Editor, Jozef-Korut, 5 Budapest VIII, expressing appreciation of his action.

Studentoj. Je 4 Sept. komencigas en Varsovio Internacia Kongreso de Universitataj Studentoj. Esperantistaj studentoj partoprenontaj petu aranĝon de Esperanta kunveno dum la Kongreso, sciigante pri sia aligo ankaŭ al Pola Esperantista Asocio (str. Krolewska 19, Varsovio). Pri kondiĉoj de kongresaniĝo oni demandu al la naciaj studentaj organizaĵoj.

* Propaganda Lecture. Details from B.E.A.

VARIOUS.

The Book List issued with this number is worth more than a casual glance. It is the best propagandilo. It cost time and money. It cannot be published often. Keep it for reference. Buy the books it advertises.

Portraits of the B.E.A. Officers and Staff appear in International Language for June.

Guarantee Fund, 1924. Our last page shows that promises up to an additional £13 are still wanted to bring the total up to the minimum sum of £500 necessary to make the guarantee operative. Readers who have not yet guaranteed please do so now. You may guarantee any sum from 5/- upwards. Forms from the Secretary.

Another good example. In Bath and elsewhere the local Esperantists make a practice of "lifting" half a "various" column from the B.E. and sending it to his local paper, which reprints it. Some persons know a good thing when they see it!

"Roads and Road Construction" of 2 June contains a letter by M. Leon Moissant, chief engineer of Bridges and Highways, Landes, France, on "A Language Suggestion for the International Road Congress."

What we should like to know. Who drew the caricature of Mr. Merchant in July International Language?

Why should not your local paper follow the example of the Yorkshire Observer, Birmingham Town Crier, and other papers, by publishing a weekly Esperanto Column? Suggest it, offering to supply the matter yourself.

"Withernsea Echo" publishes four long articles by the Editor on Esperanto. Hearty thanks.

"The Musician's Journal" for July prints an Esperanto letter (with translation). If this magazine circulates in other countries and receives contributions from Esperantist musicians abroad, this should increase its usefulness and circulation. We hope this will be so.

"Internaciaj Informoj," ricevebla senpage ĉe Sprava Lazni, Podebrady, Ĉehoslovakjo, donas interesajn sciigojn pri la banloko Podebrady, kun ilustraĵoj.

A veteran Esperantist. Rev. R. A. Davis has returned to active participation in London group activities. He wrote in The Esperantist of pre-Congress days.

"Literatura Mondo" (Sas-U, 27, Budapest 5), offers Vol. II for One Dollar (i.e., half-price). Readers who want a good bargain will send on the money now while the offer is open.

Seen from a London Bus. "Kia Ora Lemon Squash!" Another example of the use of Esperanto for advertising purposes!

Mr. Seitaro Macuba, of Tanabe, Kii, Japan, is doing a great work for Esperanto among teachers and children of his district. We have received at the office some very handsome specimens of paintings done by his children. He wishes to interchange drawings etc. with teachers who will send him their children's work; and to correspond with English teachers about educational matters. See the Fako de Korespondo on our last page.

Pola Esperantista Asocio. The 5th Congress will be held in Warsaw, 6-8 Sept. Details from Str. Krolewska 19, Varsovio, Polujo.

A "scoop" has been obtained by the editor of International Language, who has succeeded in getting red-hot news of the Vienna Congress in the August issue.

Addresses of Members and subscribers are now kept at the office on embossed metal plates, for use with an addressing machine. Every alteration costs the Association one penny. Members are therefore respectfully requested not to change their residence in future.

Why is it that 4 of the 6 prizes in the B.E.A. Literary Competitions went abroad? Are British authors too proud to compete? Or too modest?

Now is the time to take steps for the formation of a local group in the autumn. Write to the B.E.A. for addresses of Esperantists and enquirers in your neighbourhood, and a copy of the twopenny booklet: "How to start and keep going an Esperanto Group."

Mr. B. Pickmann Mann of Washington gives Esperanto lessons at his house free to those who pay three dollars to an Esperanto Society.

CASH DIVIDENDS FOR ESPERANTO STUDENTS!

Dr. Lowell in May Amerika Esperantisto describes a plan which he finds marvellously efficacious in keeping up class attendance.

Advertise to give 24 lessons free, penalising absentees, and rewarding attenders. Each entrant pays 10/- deposit. At each attendance the learner is paid 6 pence. If he misses half of the lessons he thus receives 6/- back, and loses 4/-; if he attends all the lessons he receives 12/-, which includes 2/- bonus for good attendance. The teacher may possibly find himself slightly out of pocket at the end of the course, but absences through weather, illness, etc. usually pay the bonuses. We should like to see this plan tried in England—and Scotland! It should appeal to the British sporting instinct.
